

Free speech must be allowed but conflict of interests through majority ownership will not bring about this necessary freedom. The truth may hurt but we must face the truth nonetheless so we can act on it as we should.